“The most helpful part of the conference was hearing from real people who have had a problem with pornography and are in recovery.”

OPENING KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Sharon Eubank
President, Latter-day Saint Charities

Ms. Eubank serves as president of Latter-day Saint Charities, an organization which responds to natural disasters, conflict displacement, food insecurity, the health and safety of children and challenges for persons with disabilities. Additionally, in 2017, Ms. Eubank was appointed to the Relief Society general presidency of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.

CLOSING KEYNOTE SPEAKER: Collin Kartchner
Save the Kids

Collin Kartchner is a social activist raising awareness of social media's effect on teen mental health. He travels the country speaking to kids, parents, educators and more on the connection between social media and screen addiction, on the epidemic rise in teen anxiety, depression, and suicidality.
